The contact details of the nodal officer duly indicating his/her designation, postal address, telephone & mobile number and company authorized email id shall be communicated to IEPF Authority on email ID "iepf@mca.gov.in" within one week from the issue of these guidelines and company shall also provide the details on its website.
2. The concerned company shall ensure a secured & dedicated email id for the purpose of communication with IEPF Authority. Care should be taken that this email id shall have sufficient space, so that it can accommodate emails with large attachments, likely to be forwarded by the claimant/ IEPF Authority. Access and use of this email id shall rest with the company concerned and IEPF Authority shall not be liable for its misuse under any circumstances.
3. Each concerned company shall provide an access link to the refund webpage of IEPF Authority website on their own website so as to facilitate the easy refund procedure for its investors/claimants.
4. Once the claim is filed (as per the procedure defined on the website www.iepf.gov.in) the concerned company shall verify the form, claim & documents and submit its verification report, in the specified format annexed with these guidelines along with all the prescribed documents in IEPF-5 form to IEPF Authority within 15 days from claim receipt.
5. The concerned company shall also ensure to enclose photocopy of challans (duly attested by nodal officer) through which the amount was originally credited by the company in Govt. account. The year wise detailed statements (duly attested by nodal officer) showing the name of claimant, the amount and/or shares to be refunded and the number & date of challan with which the money was originally deposited shall also be enclosed with the copy of challans.
6. The verification report shall be furnished by the concerned company in the prescribed format of the IEPF Authority (Annexure I of these guidelines). No verification report shall be entertained by the IEPF Authority in respect of claim applications made in violation of the procedure as prescribed on the website www.iepf.gov.in. The verification report shall be submitted by the concerned nodal officer of the company to the IEPF Authority, Ground Floor, Jeevan Vihar Building, 3, Parliament Street, New Delhi-110001 only. No other communication mode/address shall be entertained.

7. To facilitate processing of refund claims, the attachments to the verification report shall be placed in the order as indicated in Annexure II of these guidelines with proper indexing/labelling. The attachments should be duly verified by the Nodal Officer, wherever applicable.
8. After attestation of the verification report by the nodal officer, the responsibility for verifying/detecting/duplicate claim (if any) at any point of time shall rest with the concerned company only.
9. For IEPF-5 forms which are marked for resubmission by the Authority for removal of deficiencies, the company shall issue revised verification report upon receipt of additional/modified documents from the claimant within 15 days from receipt of such documents. The company should tick resubmitted claim option in verification report and shall enclose additional attachment/documents provided for Resubmission. The company shall specify the additional/modified documents under the 'Attachments with resubmitted claim' section of Verification report.
10. In case there is a pending litigation/proceedings which bars payment of the claimed amount and refund of shares to the claimant, the concerned company shall give full details of the said litigation/proceeding along with the report to the IEPF Authority and shall ensure that Form IEPF 3 is filed as per Rule 6(3) (b) of IEPF Rule, 2016.
11. The company shall ensure that valid proof of entitlement has been attached with the claim. Please refer Annexure II of these guidelines for details.
12. Attention is invited to Rule 7(10) of the Investor Education and Protection Fund Authority (Accounting, Audit, Transfer and Refund) Rules, 2016 which states that the Company shall be solely liable under all circumstances whatsoever to indemnify the IEPF Authority, in case of any dispute or lawsuit that may be initiated due to any incongruity or inconsistency or disparity in the verification report or otherwise. Consequently the IEPF Authority shall not be liable to indemnify the security holder or company for any liability arising out of any discrepancy in verification report submitted etc. leading to any litigation or complaint arising thereof.
