TERMS OF APPOINTMENT- ROLES, DUTIES, RESPONSIBILITIES AND LIABILITIES AS AN INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR.

I. Term of Office

The Company has already received your consent letter to act as an Independent Director and the declaration that you meet the criteria of Independence as provided in Section 149 of the Companies Act, 2013. Your appointment is subject to confirmation by Shareholders in the ensuing Annual General Meeting of the Company. Subsequently, the appointment shall be effective for a term of five consecutive years from the conclusion of the ensuing Annual General Meeting and you shall not be liable to retire by rotation.

Your appointment shall be governed by relevant provisions and rules thereto of Companies Act, 2013 and the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

At any time that you resign, the same is to be intimated to the Board of Directors by a written resignation letter. It is also desirable that you provide a prior intimation to the Company of your intention to resign or to not seek re-appointment.

You may be removed as a director or otherwise required to vacate office under any applicable law and the Articles of Association of the Company.

Role of the Board

The Board's role is to effectively represent, and promote the interests of shareholders with a view to adding long-term value to the Company's shares. Having regard to its role, the board directs, and supervises the management of the business and affairs of the Company including, in particular:

- ensuring that the Company's goals are clearly established, and that strategies are in place for achieving them;
- establishing policies for strengthening the performance of the Company including ensuring that management is proactively seeking to build the business through innovation, initiative, technology, new products and the development of its business capital;
- monitoring the performance of management;
- deciding on whatever steps are necessary to protect the Company's financial position and the ability to meet its debts and other obligations when they fall due, and ensuring that such steps are taken;
